Worth Reading.

"You will find enclosed thirty-one one-cent stamps for one of Dr. Pierce's Medical Advisers, cloth bound," writes James E. Crampston, Esq., of Sharpsburg, Washington Co., Md. "This book is for a friend of mine who is using your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I cannot praise your medicine too highly. I was in business in Baltimore and had rheumatism for three months; couldn't walk at all. I tried the best doctors I could get, but they did me no good. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured me sound. I came home to Sharpsburg, and there were three cases of different diseases. I advised the patients to use Dr. Pierce's medicines, which they did, and all were cured."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. THE NEGRO QUESTION.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

The Old Dominion is facing a momentous crisis. The questions of the day, the issues of the hour that will have to be met and settled by the constitutional convention soon to assemble in Richmond, are equal in importance and seriousness those which confronted the famous convention of 1861 which took Virginia out of the union or the one in 1867 that brought her back.

It was the question of slavery that obscured every issue in '61. It was the same paramount question that the people had to face when they met in 1867 and at the point of the bayonet were compelled to frame the present constitution. It was the negro question that prevailed in the past, and it is the negro question that is supreme now. Like Banquo's ghost it will not down.

The action of the convention in this matter is pregnant with weal or woe to our old commonwealth.

Senator Daniel has lifted his voice in favor of the whites raising money to pay for the education of the blacks, and he has championed his views with signal ability, when such a man—a Senator—a chosen leader—the trusted tribune of the people espouses one side of any public question it receives a powerful support. But it is the people who are the supreme arbiters and to them I address this letter.

The Senator thinks it will be unfortunate if the convention provides that the colored people shall educate their children, and the white people be taxed only for the support of the white schools.

I take issue with Senator Daniel and believe he is utterly and entirely wrong in his deductions, and I for one am convinced that if his policy prevails and we are to go on taxing the white people to pay for the education of the negro, the result will be disastrous in the extreme, and the good accomplished would be nil. Let us look the question plainly in the face.

Shall the white be taxed to educate the children of their own race only, and shall the negroes be taxed to educate the children of their own race also?

Up to forty years ago the negro was so closely identified with the whites, that their weal and their woe was ours. Now they are a thoroughly alien race, that dwell with us, yet hate us, and the breach widens day by day. We owe them nothing, we have paid off the debt of affection and gratitude due to faithful, loving slaves.

Furthermore, if the colored race of today were of the same calibre, the "onions of the old block" of the bondsmen of half a century ago, it is certain that the question of the division of the school fund would never arise, even though we knew that the money would be thrown away.

It is a patent fact that the colored race today have all the bad traits of their grandfathers, without any of their simple but grand virtues. It is a condition, not a theory, that confronts us, and to the close observer it is clear that the colored people as a mass have learned to distrust the whites, as much as their grandfathers loved and honored them, and for the white people to go on taxing themselves for a favored benefit to a hostile race is to my mind the very epitome of folly, the quintessence of lacklessness.

Senator Daniel says that to make the blacks educate their own children would "create a running sore in the Commonwealth, that would be fruitful of constant and irrepressible agitation."

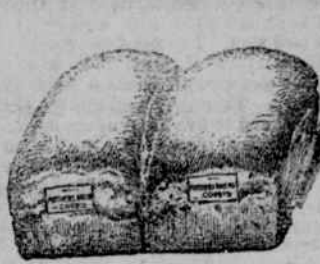

Who would agitate? Not the whites, and if the colored brethren can agitate more than they do now, then it will be a miracle. In fact they have agitated so much that they have utterly disgusted the white people North, South, East and West. You cannot pick up a paper without reading resolutions, addresses, arguments, appeals, invocations and denunciations from the ubiquitous multitudinous, largish, declamatory darkey. He has forsaken the cozy meeting for the rostrum. Suppose the Poles, Italians, Greeks were continually holding mass meetings for the injustice done their people, and uttering veiled threats against the Aryan race, what would be the result? "It needs no prophet to come from the grave to tell us."

Why only last month in a public hall in Washington before the wealth and culture (?) of the colored race, a noted negro politician, Prof. Cromwell, took for his eulogy, the Hon. Nat Turner, and carried off the honors of the evening. The same Nat Turner who headed the insurrection of slaves in Southampton county, Virginia, in the ante bellum times, when he and his gang killed every man, woman and sucking babe they came across, and his name is revered, his memory kept green by these American Dahomians, what a commendation on education. In my travels through the South, I heard but this one statement from our people: "No woman in the country regions of its broad domains dares to walk a hundred yards from her home without an escort." In India the man-eating tiger lurks, and the natives shudder at his name, but our women dread far more the black Caliban that crouches around the clearing, or haunts the groggeries of the villages. He has learned the three R's
